LIFE IS AN ADVENTURE!

If you have school-age children (or grandchildren) you know that Thursday, August 25th, is the first day of school for the Valley Center-Pauma Unified School District. Many of us approach the start of a new school year with mixed feelings, which is completely understandable. Although it is the end of another summer, it also is the beginning of many new adventures. And adventures, by definition are exciting, but sometimes a little scary.

That's where PVI can help. As your life changes, with your children growing up and starting new adventures, such as driving and then leaving for college, trust PVI to make sure that, not only is your whole family appropriately covered, but we also have numerous valuable resources to share with you to help put your mind at ease as your children grow up and branch out. Just let us know how we can help.

Yes, life is an adventure! Thank you for allowing PVI along for the ride!

Your college student may be smiling as she heads off to higher learning, but there's something that can put a smile on your face as well - saving on your auto insurance.

If your son or daughter is attending a college more than 100 miles away from home, but leaving their vehicle behind, you qualify for lower auto insurance premiums. Give us a call today to find out more about our Resident Student Discount. You might be surprised at the degree to which PVI can help you save money! 760-749-2383

MAKING THE GRADE

With the beginning of a new school year, it's the perfect time for a refresher course on our Good Student Discount for auto insurance. If you have a child who drives and maintains at least a 3.0 (B) grade-point average, you automatically qualify for a discount on your auto insurance.

Proof required to receive the discount includes a report card or a letter from a school administrator. If your student is home-schooled, discount can be based on standardized testing. Give us a call today to see how we can help you save money, while encouraging your student to excel in school! 760-749-2383

KNOWLEDGE + ACTION = THE BEST POLICY

There are many things for college-bound students to consider. Something that should be on that list, but may not be is reviewing your insurance policy. Full-time college students living away from home should know they may have limited coverage under their parents' insurance policies.

Here are a few Homeowners and Renters Insurance tips for students:

- * If you live in a dorm, some of your personal possessions may be covered under your parents' homeowners or renters insurance policies. However, expensive items such as computers and other electronic items may be subject to coverage limits under a standard homeowner's policy, and some states require a special student endorsement.
- * If you live off-campus, consider purchasing renters insurance. Renters insurance may be necessary to protect you and your belongings, and can protect you from liability in the event someone accidentally gets injured on the property.
- * As much as possible, leave valuables at home. While some valuable items, such as laptops, may be needed on campus, other items such as expensive jewelry or collectibles are best left at home.
- * Create a "dorm inventory list." A detailed inventory of all items you'll be taking with you, including photos and receipts, will make it much easier to file a claim in the event one becomes necessary.

Keeping it Local

Our business is much more than just selling insurance, it is a way of life; which means long-term personal relationships being built with members of our

* Safeguard your personal items from theft. Always lock your dorm room door and never leave belongings unattended on campus. According to the Insurance Information Institute, the library, dining hall and other public places are primary areas on campus where property theft occurs.

PVI would love to help insure a smooth transition to college life! If you have any questions about your insurance coverage, just give us a call! When you're leaving for college, you don't want to learn the hard way that you're not adequately covered!

TAILORED JUST FOR YOU!

Brandon Strausbaugh, PVI Manager, has his commercial debut all sewn up!

If you look closely at the "Standard" graphic in our newsletter name above, you'll see the background is comprised of tailoring tools; that is by design. You see, PVI has taken on the persona as your personal Tailor when it comes to your insurance needs. Actually, we have always worn that mantle, we were just waiting for the perfect time to put all the pieces together for our "official" Tailor debut.

That opportunity presented itself in the making of a TV commercial. On Tuesday, August 9th, the production crew of The CW Channel 6 The Neighborhood SD with Host Ty Hines arrived at the PVI office. We spent the next couple of hours shooting a commercial that will run during the show from September through November. If you missed the whole story, please check it out on our PVI Blog!

Brandon Strausbaugh, PVI Manager, welcomes attendees to the Chamber of Commerce SunRiser

When faced with the possibility of having to cancel the Chamber of Commerce's July SunRiser (due to scheduling conflicts within the Chamber) Pauma Valley Insurance (PVI) was asked to pinch hit and serve as host, which they gladly did. In fact, they stepped up to the plate and hit a home run!

The PVI team arrived early to set-up and make sure everything was good to go. From the delicious buttermilk waffles (made onsite) to the rest of the fresh fare, everyone agreed it met the PVI standard (always a cut above)!
